

Directions to Brookfield Health Sciences Complex, UCC

From the city centre:

Drive west out of the city along Washington Street, past Jury's Hotel on your left.

Turn left at the traffic lights by the old black College gates on to Donovans Rd.

Go up Donovans Rd, past the Honan Chapel on your right.

At the top of the hill, turn right onto College Road.

Pass the main vehicle entrance to the College on your right.

Go through traffic lights.

Pass Bon Secours Hospital on right.

Brookfield Health Sciences Complex is located on your right (before the entrance to the Brookfield Holiday Village).

When you enter the complex, keep right and you will arrive to the front of the building.
For the visitors car parks:

Go as far as the traffic lights on College Road, and then turn right down Gaol Walk hill. At the bottom of the hill, follow the road to the right and then left over a bridge, where immediately to the right is the Perrott's Inch (pay) car park. An alternative way of accessing the Perrott's Inch car park is, by traveling west along Washington Street, then continuing straight ahead at the traffic lights at the old black College gates and taking a left turn at the next set of traffic lights - the car park is 100m on the left. This is pay parking per hour.

Alternative parking is available in Perrott Avenue, and this is located near the Hayfield Manor. Again this is pay parking per hour.

Alternative parking along College Rd can be found at the UCC Satellite carpark at Dennehy's Cross, just 5 mins walk further west down College Rd from the Brookfield Health Sciences Complex. However as this is free of charge (and open to students), it is usually full quite early.

On-street parking in Cork city centre is by way of parking discs. You can buy these at many shops and garages all over the city.
